These yellow flowers cover the 110 Freeway walls. How they got there

Image Source: LAist

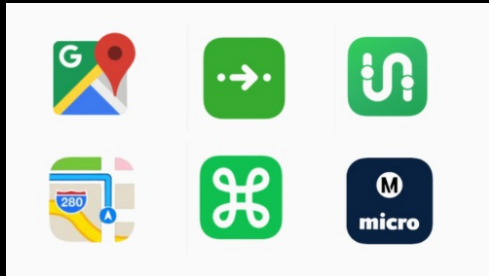

Mariana Dale | LAist

“But on a recent morning, a thick garland of yellow flowers spilled over the top of the sound walls from the 91 through the South Figueroa Corridor and glowed in the early light.

I wondered what could grow, let alone thrive, in such an unforgiving place. So I put my journalistic powers to use and found more questions along the way."
