Ride Metro For Free to Celebrate LAX's New Transit Center

Video Source: Metro Los Angeles

Opening June 6 at 5 PM, the new LAX/Metro Transit Center will connect Metro's C and K Lines directly to LAX via a free airport shuttle.

The station will offer a faster, more convenient way to get to and from the airport—no traffic, no hassle.

In honor of the grand opening of the LAX/Metro Transit Center, Metro is offering free rides for the entire bus and rail system.

Between 4 a.m. on Friday, June 6 and 3 a.m. on Monday, June 9, you can ride the Metro in L.A. County for free. Metro Bike Share is offering free 30-minute rides with promo code 060625. And Metro Micro users can redeem free rides by using the Metro Micro app or website, without a promo code.

Nick Owchar | LA Times

"Marsak's affection for the past extends to Arnold Hylen, a solitary, mild-mannered Swedish émigré, whose book of mid-20th century photos and an essay about old Los Angeles, "Los Angeles Before the Freeways 1850-1950: Images of an Era," was recently reissued by Angel City Press in a new edition curated and expanded by Marsak.

Not merely a facsimile, the new edition has been augmented with additional text, notes, fresh layouts and more Hylen photos of an old city on the verge of being swallowed up by the new — a process of cultural erasure that crops up in many criticisms of Los Angeles as a superficial place with no deep sense of itself. Marsak disagrees — sort of."
